LAWYERS WERE SAVED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERISBURG, VA., May 25.—Mrs.
Helen M. Hoge has won her suit against he Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company in the Circuit Court of Prince leorge county after a five days' fight
n which about seventy witnesses testiied.

Mrs. Hoge is the wife of J. H. Hoge, fied.

Mrs. Hoge is the wife of J. H. Hoge, of Prince Glorge county. She was represented by R. H. Mann, of Petersburg; Bernard Mann, of Glisis city, and W. M. Bernard, of Surry, were counsel for the company.

Judge Mullen presided for Judge J. F. West, because of latter's connection with defendant company.

The lawyers had made an agreement that the losers should walk to Petersburg from Prince George Courthouse, but the legal "Weary Willies" were saved by a technicality.

By their agreement with plaintiff's counsel, the "losing side should pay this novel penalty. The defendants' lawyers would have enjoyed that rainy day diversion, but for their contention that the jury's adverse verdict was not a final decision as their motion to set aside the verdict might be sustained or the case might go to a higher court.

This technical objection, rainy weather and a charitable spirit, prevailed upon the winner to release his professional brothers from their bond and all parties made the seven mile trip in the usual "one horse shays."

Mrs. Hodge's suit was for the amount of the policy on a stock of peanuts burned last January, the company refusing

"We, the jury, find for the plaintiff and assess her damages at $1,147.50 with interest from January 20th, the full amount claimed," was the verdict rendered this afternoon in less than half an hour. Plaintiff's counsel moved to set aside the verdict, alleging wrong instruchour. Plaintiff's counsel moved to set aside the verdict, alleging wrong instructions to jury. Judge Mullen will hear argument on this motion next week. There was no demurrer to evidence and the case will probably reach the Virginia Supreme Court.

The peanut capacity of the burned building was a hotly contested point, many witnesses on each side testifying as expert architects and contractors, among them Leonard J. Koster, of Richmond.
